FOOTPADS KNOCK DOWN INDIAN AND ROB HIM OF $50

First Case of Thuggery During Fair Week Reported from Barelas District; Two Suspects
Under Investigation.

Hard on the heels of the report that a mob of pickpockets is at work in the state fair grounds came the news today of the first case of thuggery in the week's annual.

A. J. Passano reported to the authorities this morning that he was knocked out and robbed by footpads near the Barelas bridge last night. He said two men attacked him and took $50 from him. He has been unable to find them.

Passano is an Indian from Casa Blanca, which is near Laguna. He is a member of a family prominent in his neighborhood.
Detective Sheriff Fred Gonzalez, of Barelas, arrested two suspects in connection with the case. They are held for investigation.

POLICE COURT BAD PLACE IN WHICH TO DISPLAY A GROUCH

Miguel Sanchez Learns That When He Tells Judge to "Go as Far as He Pleased" in Passing Sentence.

Miguel Sanchez, arrested by two sheriffs officers at a table for disturbing the peace faced Judge Judge Mc-Clellan today suffering palpably from the depressing and irritating the deleterious effects of too much strong drink. A policeman diagnosed Miguel's case as "in hangover and a grouch."

"Ten dollars," said Judge McClellan after hearing the case.
Miguel's irritation broke out in a rash.
"Go as far as you like," he said.

He met what was coming to him at once. Judge McClellan forced him to apologize and then he added fifteen days in the chain gang to the fine.

University News

The Montezuma Ball.

For the first time in the history of this annual affair a great number of those attending were young people. The "Varsity" was very well represented. The following is a list of those from the faculty. Misses Helen Wilson, Helen Aldredge, Mabel Hays, Alice Atkinson, Bettie Simms, Katherine Little, Katherine Conway, Lila Ferguson, Annette Wendman, Kathleen Porter, Margaret Cook, Shirley von Waackhausen, Katherine M. Miller, Alberta Hawthorne, Messrs. Willard Hapgood, Robert Hapgood, Harold Miller, Harold Perry, Lemuel Palmer, Fred Smith, Joseph E. and Roy McCann, George Parr, Harold Sellers.

Football Practice Resumed.

In view of the rapidly approaching Colorado college game, the football squad is again made at work. Practice from now on will be very strenuous and several practice games will certainly be played next week. Either a demand school or the Indian school will scrimmage the varsity squad. These practice games are well worth witnessing as it will give the local people a line on the probable showing of the team.

Charles Lee, a former student, is at home and attended the Montezuma ball last evening. Mr. Lee leaves tonight to resume his college work at Yale.

Mr. A. L. Aldredge, who has been visiting his father, Mr. Helen Aldredge, leaves for Stirling, N. M., today.

Miss Helen Wilson returned yesterday from Baton Rouge.

Nearly two hundred boys and girls from Camp Southern camped at the University yesterday afternoon. They were given refreshments on the grounds.

"AN EXTRAORDINARY PHOTOPLAY AT THE PASTIME THIS EVENING

Frances Nelson, who is co-starred with E. K. Lincoln and Duke Hefner in "The Almighty Dollar," which is the attraction of the Pastime theater today, was formerly associated with Lew Fields on the speaking stage, having played "The Wife Heaters" with him. She later played with Tom Wise in stock, and then joined the World Film Corporation, with whom she has been very successful. She was started in "Lovers' Progress" with Lew Hapgood at the Grand Canyon, and later in "The Wife Heaters" with him. In this picture she has a part admirably well fitted to her, and one in which all her friends will appreciate her work.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL IS IN FULL SWING THROUGHOUT WEST

Coaches Still Busily Engaged in Shifting Players and Getting Ready for the Big Games;
Practice Games the Order.

San Francisco, Sept. 29.—College football virtually was in full swing throughout the west today, with coaches still busily engaged in shifting players and getting ready for the big games.

The California variety continues to devote much of the practice time to shifting players, coaches having commented much on the peculiar system evolved. Using it is said, a starting lineal such as adopted by the Harvard variety, the Bears have evolved various take manures designed to give opponents considerable trouble in timing their attack.

As a result, southern football, such as adopted by the Harvard variety, the Bears have evolved various take manures designed to give opponents considerable trouble in timing their attack.

The work of coaches Smith, Ziegler and Mahan the tackling of the Bears' first squad has come to for criticism.

They have shown opponents consistently thus far, however, having prevented two strong club teams from scoring on them.

Southern California, minus the services of Fred Kelly, the champion sprinter who has announced on his way west to join the team, but in forty-five minutes practice last Saturday with a reconstituted St. Vincent's football team, apparently are not only satisfied with their season work of the Trojans, but expecting of good entertainment from the St. Vincent's, who a few days ago were a considerable factor in the American game.

Nobody at Palo Alto seems to be depressed over the Cardinals' complete isolation in football resulting from his determination to stick to rugby. Five Stanford teams engaged in football last Saturday, the last day of the Olympic week.
